Our inclusive youth theatre programme celebrates the diverse rangatahi of Aotearoa. With youth voice central to our kaupapa we co create this programme with our young people so that they learn how to create theatre and film that has meaning to them. We want to remove financial barriers for our programmes so if your whānau need support to access our programme please let us know. Glass Ceiling Arts Collective have a commitment to building community so that together we can pave the way to access to the arts for all people.
